

September 24, 2008

Election 2008:
Canada's leading environment groups to release statement calling for effective action on climate change

Government action on climate change is at stake in this election.

On September 24th, representatives of Canada's leading environment groups will be gathering in Montreal to release a statement calling on Canada's next government to adopt specific measures to address climate change.

It is imperative that the next federal government take decisive action on climate change. Canada needs a comprehensive and effective climate action plan to fight climate change and to build long-term solutions for a healthy economy, environment and future.

Who: Representatives of Canada's Leading Environment Groups, including Steven Guibeault, Equiterre.
Clare Demerse, Pembina Institute
André Belisle, QuébecKyoto and AQLPA
Arthur Sandborn, Greenpeace
Barbara Hayes, Canadian Youth Climate Campaign

What: Joint Election 2008 Statement

Where: 1601 de Lorimier, Salle A, Sous-sol

When: September 24, 2008, 10:30 AM

For further information:

election-2008@climateactionnetwork.ca
www.climateactionnetwork.ca